'Addiction in the Counselling Room' with Steve Fearn

Friday 4th October 2019

During the day we will look at the following issues linked with addictions:

- * Basic Substance Misuse Awareness:
- * Identification and understanding of illicit drugs
- * Effect of drugs and alcohol on the body, thinking about signs and symptoms
- * Understanding addiction and recovery
- * Tools to use when working with those with substance misuse issues in the counselling room
- * Substance Misuse specialist services and referral pathways.

Steve Fearn is qualified as a Humanistic Counsellor. He has been working in a community substance misuse setting in Maidstone for almost 15 years, specialising in delivering psychosocial interventions with a particular focus on group work facilitation. He has also delivered Alcohol Awareness training to over 1500 professionals across Kent, as well as bespoke training to groups around addiction and drug awareness.

In addition to the above Steve and has worked at Sevenoaks Counselling part-time for the last 3 years.
